Open Access Gold Publishing

The service for your next paper in gold

You are an MPG researcher? You want more than publishing? You want your next paper in gold - openly accessible for the whole world?

More than 400 journals are already waiting for your article to be published without any extra charges for you and your institute. You submit your article while we take care of your payment. We are working every day to increase the number of central agreements with open access gold publishers for a convenient and efficient publishing service.
Follow the link to get more information or search for your relevant OA journal with central MPG agreement in our new gold list.
